Multisensory Stimulation System V1.30 August-4-2013

Shiranda Zee

“The beauty of this system is the ability to individualize it to the person experiencing it, depending on what aroma, sound, vibration they need for enhancing their relaxation or inspiration.”

“There is a tremendous ability to use all of the technology here and gear it towards a particular person.”

“To rebalance their energy system, an individual can have an infinite array of programs.”

Frank Malle

“I couldn’t stop smiling the whole time”

Marlene Malle

“It’s expanding...I love the nature sounds and I like that there was no visual. I could create the picture in my mind... I was actually there. ... what that means is that your using your brain differently if not visually seeing, but imagining, not using that part of your brain so your having to rely on other parts”

Elise Wygant

Interior Designer and Spa Goer

“I’m your perfect Spa Goer... I love to pamper myself. Your multisensory experience was much deeper and more relaxing than any massage treatment I’ve ever received.”

“The rapidness of relaxation is pretty incredible, like after an hour massage (in) such a short amount of time. It was even a deeper relaxation than that because a massage physically relaxes your mind but this is at a higher level.”

“I loved that innate level of relaxation with the heart beat, like you were being in the womb-- it got me back to my core. Very primal.”

Brandon Roth

Multimedia Journalist at CNC Central.com, New York

Very powerful, very relaxing. Really slows your brain waves down.”

“I felt like I was in a dream-like state. And after, I feel a restorative power like after a deep sleep.”

“Therapeutic potential not just for special needs but for everybody that needs to de-stress.”

“You have enough today to take it out into the market place and to get the capital not just raise capital but to generate capital. By executing a program.”

“I thought of learning something as I was going through this full experience. How do we learn... but through experience.”
